Recommended by: _____

- A. Briefly describe your job responsibility. Does your work allow you to attend events between the hours of 9 to 5 on weekdays? How does participation in Ambassador events support your workplace objectives?
- B. Summarize community activities or other activities that you have supported as a volunteer. Please include time volunteered to this or other chambers of commerce, and your activities in clubs and organizations.
- C. Why do you want to become an Ambassador?

D. Time commitments:

The Ambassador commitment is to attend at least 50% of all Ambassador calls. Historically, there have been a total of 50-60 Ambassador calls annually. Although the majority of ambassador calls are from 9 to 5 on weekdays, there are a few events after 5 p.m. or on weekends.

Do you have a flexible schedule that would permit your attendance at 50% of these events? Yes No

Can you attend the monthly Mingle and Munch Lunch ($25.00)? The lunch serves as the monthly ambassador meeting.
 Yes No

Can you attend Ambassador meetings scheduled every other month?
 Yes No

Can you attend Business After Hours monthly from 5:30 to 7:00 p.m.?
 Yes No

E. Financial Obligations:

1. An Ambassador purchases a required "red coat". The red coat is required at all ambassador calls. Cost of a coat is currently $130.00 new. The coat can be purchased at HomeTown Threads in the Wal-Mart at Unser and Southern (contact is Debbie Turner – phone 994-9197); the jacket is a Hardwick Blazer (Artillery Red Regent, is the color).
2. Annual Ambassador Membership dues of $25.00 are requested from each Ambassador in January to help defray program costs and fund ambassador recognition programs.

Please sign below acknowledging your understanding of the Ambassador commitment. Your application for membership will be reviewed and you will be notified concerning acceptance to the Ambassadors. Annual Ambassador $25.00 Membership dues to accompany application. Once accepted, you will be assigned to an ambassador team. You will be given a commitment form to sign for each program year.
